1.	Introduction The meeting started at 2100.
2.	Presentation by Corporate Relations Secretary – Alicia Bee Jing Xuan The Corporate Relations Secretary shared that if members wanted larger sponsorships for their events, she could pitch to larger companies such as Gojek and tell them why they should sponsor those events. She is prepared to share the events which are coming up for the various CBds and persuade Gojek by explaining how the sponsorship will benefit it. As such, she asked the CBd Presidents to consider this opportunity and if they are keen, they can let her know what they want so that she can pitch to Gojek. She also reminded everyone that there has to be benefits to Gojek as well. In addition, any collaterals resulting from potential sponsorship do not need to be standardised across all CBds. The Secretary then shared that BIZCOM has been busy with event planning in May. She also invited members to let her know if there are any sponsors who have worked with BIZCOM before which they would like to work with, so that BIZCOM can link them up with the sponsors. SMUSA EXCO members should also let her know in advance if they are expecting sponsors for their upcoming events. If so, they should prepare a list of potential sponsors.	All to note

	In addition, if any companies ask members about setting up booths at BIZCOM's Bazaar, they should be directed to the Secretary.
3.	Presentation by ACF President – Sim Kai Shin, Hazel The ACF President shared that she and her Vice President had conducted coffee chats with ACF's clubs in May. The President then shared updates on the following upcoming items: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - ACF Arts Camp: The confirmed dates are 3 June to 5 June for the mock run and 1 July to 3 July for the actual run. - ACF CSP Programme: ACF is still in talks with companies regarding this. - ACF Lunchtime Performances: ACF is still in talks with the Office of Student Life (OSL) regarding the budget for this. The busking performances are envisioned to resemble performances during Vivace in the past and a potential venue being considered is the area outside the SMUSA Hub. - ACF Website Revamp - ACF Asset and Auditing - ACF X ICON: ACF's collaboration with ICON will take place in August. The President asked SMUSA if there would be a calendar to publicise the summer events, to which the Communications Secretary that there would be an events calendar rolled out in mid-June. 13.	Presentation by Honorary Finance Secretary – Sylvia Aw Su Wei The Honorary Finance Secretary shared that BEM 2 will take place on 6 and 7 August. It will be held on a hybrid mode because many of the Finance Secretaries will not be in Singapore then. The deadline for the CCA CBds and ICON to submit the first draft for their budget is 26 June, while the deadline for the CCA CBds is 3 July. The amount allocated to the budget is still awaiting confirmation from the Office of Finance (OFIN). The Secretary shared that the confirmed list of students will come in quite late, but she is pushing for the university to come up with it earlier so as to reduce over-spending.	All to note

	The Secretary then shared that the SMUSA Audit will be conducted from 1 July to 31 July. Approximately three CBds will be audited, and the audit will be on their revenues. Finally, the Secretary shared that her department will be rolling out a revised claims system in collaboration with the Office of Business Improvement. The objectives are to simplify and digitalise the claims system, decrease the time taken for students to receive reimbursement, and standardise the claims system across the university. Under the new system, which is slated to be rolled out next year, claims for will be submitted to the finance secretaries, and then straight to OFIN. The Finance Committee has been asked to share their feedback. At the same time, the Secretary invited the SAC members to share their feedback with her as well.
14.	Presentation by Operations Secretary – Ler Wei Qiang The Operations Secretary shared that he is awaiting the final invoice for the mass disposal. The bin was cleared, and some bulky cabinets were left behind. He also shared that the Freshmen Orientation (FO) cage has been cleared to create more space for FO and Vivace. The Secretary also shared that the Asset Loan Standing Order and slides have been finalised. It will be cleared with the Operations directors, the SAC and OSL before it is updated on the SMUSA website and disseminated to clubs through their governing CBds. The Secretary then shared updates on the following upcoming items: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - SAEM 2: This will take place physically on 16 July. The deadline for submission of drafts is 11 July. - AEM 2: 	All to note

	This will take place physically on 23 July. The deadline for submission of drafts is 18 July. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Mass donation (KIV) The Secretary informed members that if camp chairs would like to use the SMUSA Hub for their camps, they should inform him early because he needs to work with the ACF operations department to ensure that there is sufficient space for dance clubs to use. The camp chairs would need to explain why they are not able to find another venue to use.
15.	Presentation by Academic & Welfare Secretary – Allyne Zhang Jia Fan The Academic & Welfare Secretary shared that she would be disseminating the SMUSA Student Survey (SSS) reports by the end of the week. Members are encouraged to look through the qualitative responses in the attached Excel file.	All to note
16.	Presentation by Communications Secretary – Seo Shu Hui Sophia The Communications Secretary gave an update on the items which her department is working on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Events Calendar: This will be included in the Welcome Pack and will also be posted on Instagram. - Revamping of website: The Secretary is in touch with the Marketing/Communications directors regarding this. - Finalisation of designs for Welcome Pack - Intro to SMUSA Instagram posts 	All to note
17.	Presentation by Events Secretary – Tan Jia Yi Trisha The Events Secretary gave an update on following key events. Freshmen Orientation:	All to note

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The extended recruitment run for Facilitators and Game Masters has been completed. - The mock runs will take place from 28 June to 29 June, as well as 1 July and 4 July. - The Organising Committee (OC) may be inviting some CCAs to perform during the actual runs. The Secretary invited ACF to share any concerns regarding this with her. Vivace: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Associates' recruitment has been completed. - Sign-ups for Vivace have closed, and there will be 153 CCAs participating. - The event will be held on 11 August and 12 August. It has not been confirmed if the event will be held over 1 day, 1.5 days or 2 days due to the Academic Year Opening Ceremony. - The Organising Committee is planning a fully physical programme, with some online elements to cater to students who are not able to attend the event physically. - The Secretary shared that there should be one representative from each CCA designated as the point of contact with the Vivace OC. This representative's role will be to relay information from the Vivace OC to the CCA's EXCO, as well as submit collaterals and ask questions on behalf of his or her CCA. The rationale for having only one point of contact is to avoid confusion, make communications more efficient, and to avoid spamming. Urgent matters should be raised through the Icomm Telegram, while non-urgent matters should be raised through the Google form. CCAs should direct their queries to the Vivace OC. Bi-annual 1:
--	---	--

	- The event has been completed. It was the first physical event of the year for SMUSA, and the general feedback from participants was positive. The Secretary then shared that her department is working alongside the Communications Department on the Welcome Pack for all incoming freshmen. It will include a Welcome Pack booklet, which will feature a summer events calendar. The Secretary then proceeded to share that the deconflicting of mock camps for all school and CCA CBds has been completed by the Events Committee. The Committee has also consolidated the modes for all the different camps and has not received any updates from OSL regarding the most updated safe management measures. CBds should check directly with their staff advisors.
18.	Update by Honorary General Secretary – Ong Ing Khim, Russell The Honorary General Secretary shared that his department would be proposing changes to the SMUSA Email Standing Order, Poster Standing Order, and Vivace Email Standing Order to improve the clarity of drafting and simplify processes. He will be soliciting views from the Honorary General Secretaries of the CBds and ICON, and also encouraged the SAC members to share their views. The revised standing orders are targeted to be voted upon at the next SAC meeting. The Secretary also shared that he will be present at the Vivace briefing for clubs in June, so clubs can raise their questions directly to him then.	All to note
19.	Presentation by Grassroots Working Committee Chairman – Ler Wei Qiang The Grassroots WC Chairman shared the following updates regarding the Sustainability Week which his WC is organising:	All to note

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - It will be held in Week 3 of the next academic term so as to avoid clashing with Bizcom Bazaar and publicity for other events. - The WC has come up with a rough draft for the activity line-up. - The task allocation so far is as follows: SMU Verts is organising a physical picnic event. The SMUX President is taking charge of workshop collaborations with The Sustainability Project. The WC is waiting for updates regarding the shoe recycling project from SMUSA’s staff advisor, Yi Hui. The WC is exploring collaborations with the National Environment Agency and its “Say Yes to Waste Less!” Campaign - Current limitations which the WC is facing include budget limitations. The Chairman shared that sponsorships depend on the budget. The scale of events is limited and hence it is hard to plan. The SICS President queried about who SMU Verts should submit the GPD to, should the need arise. This is because SMU Verts is an SICS club. The Operations Secretary said that he would get back to her on this point, and that he would include her in future discussions with SMU Verts and the planning of its event. The SMUSA President shared that there would be a meeting with SMU Verts that she, the Grassroots WC Chairman and the Grassroots WC Vice Chairman are attending the next day. She invited the SICS President to attend the meeting.
20.	Presentation by Leadership Induction Working Committee Chairman – Brendan Tay Jing Xun	All to note

	The Leadership Induction WC Chairman shared that given the changes to safe management measures, the WC will be proceeding with a fully physical version of SACLIP. The updated schedule will be shared with the SAC members soon. The budget will be approximately $5000. Priority in the budget allocation process will be given to food first, followed by a physical activity such as dragon-boating or a forest adventure. The President shared that there was a physical activity for team building during the 2019 run of SACLIP. SAC members can give their suggestions for activities as well. At the same time, the WC will be mindful of the physical health status of participants. The Chairman also clarified that the dates would remain the same, and that SAC members are encouraged to be present during the event. At the very least, they should be present during the closing ceremony to interact with their successors.
21.	Closing by President – Tan Jia Wei Sara The President gave an update on the discussions which took place during the SMUSA EXCO’s recent bi-monthly meeting with the Office of the Provost (PVO): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Issue with midterms during recess week: PVO will remind instructors to avoid this and will look into the issue via the Associate Deans of the respective schools. SMUSA will follow up with data on specific modules and instructors. Follow-up at this SAC meeting: The President asked the Academic & Welfare Secretary and the Honorary General Secretary to look out for documented examples of mid-terms being held during recess week. Other members are also	All to note

	welcomed to let the President know should they know of such examples. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - SSS & Pigeonhole initiative: SMUSA is in the process of getting buy-in from offices to close the feedback loop and discuss solutions with it. SMUSA is aiming to showcase the entire process from feedback to solutions, so that concerns from students are observed. - Challenges of SMUSA Study Week: PVO agreed that most instructors do not use rooms during the Study Week and therefore they should be kept un-booked. PVO will mention this during the next Undergraduate Curriculum Committee meeting. - Clarification regarding availability of classes (BOSS Bidding): PVO shared that this is a school-level issue. Admin staff will monitor the demand for classes and approach faculty to release new sections. PVO shared that there is a worksheet by the Registrar's Office (RO) which helps staff gauge the demand for modules. SMUSA shared that not many students are aware of this worksheet and offered to help promote it. This would hopefully close the gap and enable more accurate projections of module demand to be formed. PVO agreed to engage SMUSA's help. PVO can correspond with RO to increase class sizes and reduce the number of slots reserved for exchange students. The Bondue President shared that one problem with having mid-terms during recess week is that Internal Election candidates and SACLIP participants will not be able to participate in those activities if their mid-terms clash with them. The SMUSA President that this concern can be added in as well and encouraged the SAC members to let her know of documented examples of mid-terms being held during

	recess week by the following week. The President also shared that the SMUSA EXCO's next meeting with PVO will take place in July. However, additional meetings from now till then can be arranged should the need arise. SAC members are free to send in their questions to the SMUSA EXCO. The President also shared updates on the following upcoming items: Internal <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Academic support task force with the Dean of Students (DOS) and PVO: The SMUSA EXCO will be meeting DOS again for additional support.- SMUSA Vivace Booth- Voices Collab- Study Week pre-planning with OCIS and RO: The SMUSA EXCO, along with the respective offices, will be exploring if it is possible for RO to avoid booking venues for instructors during Week 14 of the academic term. External <ul style="list-style-type: none">- IUD 2023 Planning by SMUSA's Internal/External Engagement WC The committee is exploring the possibility of going with a residential format. This could include a hotel stay and field trips. However, this is unconfirmed and will be discussed with OSL.- UCare Forum planning: This will take place on 21 June, 6pm, at SCAPE. The guest-of-honour will be Minister Edwin Tong. Members of the SMUSA EXCO and CBd MCs will be sent to attend. The findings from the UCare Report will be shared at the event.

	This will be followed by a panel discussion and networking dinner. The discussion will focus on finding new ways forward. The President then concluded by sharing her experiences at the St. Gallen's Symposium which she attended.
22.	Conclusion The meeting ended at 2230.
